Volunteers

You can be a Volunteer at Shepparton Villages

If you are over the age of eighteen and would like to volunteer at Shepparton Villages, please visit our website at www.sheppvillages.com.au

Shepparton Villages is a not for profit organisation that is the largest aged care provider in the region. We are locally owned, we care for local people and employ local people.

At Shepparton Villages we offer a broad range of care services and accommodation and care for nearly 650 people.

Our Mission is to enrich the lives of people in our care as we continue to grow and strive to become a centre for excellence.

Currently we have more than 150 volunteers actively involved at Shepparton Villages, who generously donate hours and skills to assist our staff in enriching the quality of life of our residents.
