

Dining with us

Our Chef

Our Chef, Geoff Scales is passionate about food and loves cooking food that is enjoyed by all.

Geoff leads a group of chefs and cooks who all work in our purpose built main kitchen based at Tarcoola Village.

Our group of aged care specialist chefs and cooks will work with you if you have special needs.

Our Menu Choices

Geoff and his team have developed a 4 week cycle menu based on a comprehensive resident survey and audit. This menu changes seasonally to ensure residents likes and dislikes are met.

The daily menu consists of two hot choices at lunch and dinner along with a choice of salad and dessert.

Residents are also offered a range of fruit, biscuits and cakes at morning & afternoon tea and supper.

Daily we offer a Continental Breakfast where residents can help themselves whenever they decide they would like breakfast. Some of our residents enjoy a sleep in so our new breakfast menu has been designed to offer flexibility and choice. Every 6 weeks residents and staff sit down to a fully cooked breakfast prepared by a Chef.

Celebrations

We celebrate special events such as birthdays, Australian day, St Patrick's Day etc with food appropriate for the day.

Special Diets

If you require a special diet don't worry our special diets Chef Elaine will be able to meet your needs. Elaine has a special section in our main kitchen where she prepares texture modified meals and or special meals that residents require for Diabetic, Coeliac, Gluten free etc.

How is our food cooked?

We use a Cook Chill Food System method which not only requires a high level of expertise in the Main Kitchen but also in the servery, to obtain the optimum meal quality.

All food prepared, cooked and chilled by us is handled in accordance with the requirements of the Food Act 1984.

All our premises and Food Safety Program are audited annually by a qualified external Food Safety Auditor.
